Do not quench the Spirit (do not put out the Spirit's fire) - 1 Thessalonians 5:19

In life, from time to time, we are "touched" emotionally by pitiable circumstances or the sorry states of other people around us. But, beyond our feelings, do we do anything concrete?

In the Bible, there is this parable which was told by Jesus: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; then he set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him (Luke 10:30-34). The significance of this parable is that the Samaritan acted on his compassion by helping the injured man; whereas the other two men did not. they just "passed by on the other side"

As Christians, we may be touched by God's calling. Our calling may be the needs of friends, elderly folks or youths. Do we respond to God's calling with definitive actions?

Missionary Dr. Doris Brougham first learnt of the plight and needs of the Chinese people from some missionaries and Chinese pastors during her childhood. As she grew, she was constantly reminded of the needs of the Chinese people. They were her calling from God. At the tender age of twelve, she committed herself to God, to spread His gospel to the Chinese people. She carried out her commitment by setting up the ORTV. Through radio broadcasting of English language lessons, hymns sung by the Heavenly Melody Singers as well as other multi-media channels and productions, she spread God's word to thousands and millions of people living in different parts of the world.

ORTV Singapore is looking for 300 supporters, pray that God touched you, and we begin to receive your support!

Are you touched? Do not overlook it! For that may be the start of another person's journey of blessings.

Your Co-worker,
Victor

For regions with four seasons, spring is the season most people look forward to. After winter, the dried twigs began to bud and flower again; the alternation of seasons is God's arrangements which express the beautiful messages of life.

Life today is dominated by high-technology. If we do not "confront" it deliberately, life will be trapped in the flow of mechanization, we'll become short-sighted and life would seem to be of endless problems. I thought of a song in an album "Soaring" by Heavenly Melody: < Tell You >.

Tell you, the earth is still rotating for you today
The sun will climb up the sky for you tomorrow
The branches in spring will bloom for you
The singing birds are looking forward to your flight

A well-known writer and psychiatric therapist in Taiwan, Dr. Enoch Shih wrote a book: "Song is an anti-depressant", often uses this song <Tell You> to relieve the pressure of his patients.

Therefore, when we change our vision, our moods change. When we look up to God, the world will turn out differently!

ORTV NEWS

On 17th January 2015, ORTV Singapore held a Thanksgiving Dinner at the PUB Recreation Club to extend our appreciation to all the volunteers for serving and giving of themselves towards all the Evangelistic meetings last year. 52 attended which included ORTV directors, trustees, co-workers, volunteers, their spouse and children. As it's a Thanksgiving Dinner, we started the event with testimonies of thanksgiving shared by four volunteers. We thank Rev Phua for his encouragement. After taking of group photos, Rev Khoo gave thanks for the food and the dinner began. The night we shared joy and great fellowship.

In December 2014 to March 2015, ORTV in association with various churches organized two Christmas Evangelistic Meetings and two Lunar New Year Evangelistic Meetings, one of which was held in a restaurant. Heavenly Harmony Singers, Praise Band and crosstalk are jointly involved in the outreaches. We thank God for these few Evangelistic meetings, especially the ministry at the old folks home. Though the elderly group was small, they were very enthusiastic and the elderly participated and sang the songs by The Heavenly Melody along with us. Though we do not have the exact statistics of the turnout during these few meetings, we estimated that more than 800 people were present. We hope the gospel is like seeds sown in their hearts where the lost are encouraged. We give God all the glory!
