If a person does not know how to give thanks, I think he is a proud person.

If a person does not know how to give thanks, he would lose more blessings.

The ancient saying goes that a drip of kindness ought to be repaid with overflowing spring. We should give thanks often.

Coming to the end of this year, when 2015 is about to become history, let us recall the many things for which we should give thanks.

ORTV Singapore, a Christian organization that has 25 years of history in Singapore, has worked with various churches to hold around 800 gospel gatherings. In these gatherings, we witnessed many people accepting Jesus as their personal savior. These are all but God's grace, for which we give thanks.

In these 25 years, even though there were changes of co-workers, every batch of co-workers remains active in evangelism. Some have even become pastors and full-time church workers. For this, we give thanks.

In these 25 years, we saw the Lord leading us step by step, growing ORTV outreach ministry to its present strength of various sections comprising Heavenly Harmony Singers, Praise Band, Drama Team and Stage Support. For this, we give thanks.

In these 25 years, there have been many brothers and sisters in Christ who support us through prayer and financial assistance. We want to convey our sincere thanks.

Thanks be to God – in these 25 years, we have lacked nothing. Even though we have needs, we are rich because ours is a God of abundance!

"And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it." Psalm 90:17

Glory to God in the highest!

Victor

Praised by Whom?

In the era of active Social Media, we like to share. What food we eat. What new hairstyle we sport. Which places we visit. We want to know how many “likes” we get from our postings. How many comments. Unconsciously, we have cultivated an appetite for approval.

Although the message conveyed when we click “like” is limited, it seems people are accustomed to this modern way of quick friendship. It is convenient, does not take a lot of time and allows one to retain a considerable amount of autonomy.

Have you noticed that when God speaks to us, He doesn't sugarcoat His words like our “likes”? This is because His words are “Truth” and for our good, not merely to make us feel “liked”!

Jesus said: "If you love me, keep my commandments". So love has to do with obeying commandments. This truth is not easy to accept, but we need to consider what it means.

Here's a song by Heavenly Melody, entitled “Remind” and featured in their album “Soar”. The lyrics were adapted from the words of Jesus:

REMIND

(song composed by Mei Wang)

I gave you the opportunity to love;
why do you run away?
I gave you the opportunity to forgive;
why do you keep cursing?

Why do you cry
when you had the opportunity to be humble?
Why do you complain
when you had the opportunity to submit?

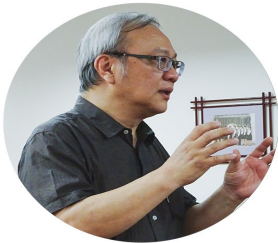

Take note of the things around you;
I give you opportunity everyday
Those who love me hear my voice
Those who love me obey my commands

Take note of the things around you;
I give you opportunity everyday
For those who love me follow my footsteps
Those who love me have me in their heart

Dear friends, let us above all be concerned if we are pleasing God in our daily life. The praise that we desire should come from Him.

We just had our last “Angel Fellowship” for this year on 21st November 2015, 5pm. Staffs and volunteers brought along their family members. Drama Team was in charge of worship, Praise Team in charge of games and ORTV staffs in charge of food. We thank Elder Sunny for his words of encouragement. After games, we continued our fellowship over dinner.

Summoning 300 Warriors

We thank God, although we have only 32 people agreed to donate monthly ($30 or more) to ORTV Singapore. If there are 300 of such donors (300 x 30), the gospel work of ORTV will be able to continue. (This is an automatic bank transfer (Giro) donation scheme. On the twelfth month, we will ask donors if they wish to continue on with the monthly deduction.) We trust God for His provision.

We have uploaded sharing resources to <http://ortv.com.sg/300>

In May next year, the ORTV truck that has been serving with us throughout rain or shine will be 10 year old and we need to replace it with another one to help us transport equipments (props, audio equipments, and musical instruments, etc.) for our evangelistic meetings. Due to high Car Ownership Certificate (COE) fee, changing of vehicle is a heavy burden for us. The estimated preliminary cost for it is about S$90,000. Therefore, we need your prayers and supports.

From July to October, ORTV held evangelistic outreach in four churches and helped in two AV Projects. Heavenly Harmony Singers, Praise Band, Crosstalk Duo and Drama Team presented in a different occasions. We thank God for all these meetings where the gospel was shared. We are very grateful for the faithful intercessors who have been upholding us in prayers. All glory to His name!
